

Pricing: How much does it cost for a Website?

A: Simple websites usually start at $250 and go up from there. Remember this is just a very basic and standard price assumption. There are many facets of website development that will extend beyond the base $250 price tag. This includes seo, logos, custom pages, website larger than a few pages, coding, optimization, tuning, versatility, maintenance, etc.

Unique solution ID: #1014

Author: FGM

Last update: 2007-07-20 12:02